WASHINGTON, Jan. 7-Opposition to government ownership or the operation of railroads at this time was expressed today by the interstate commerce commission in a statement presented to the senate interstate committee at a hearing on railway legislation by Commissioner Edgard Stark.

The commission declared however that a "reasonable period for re-adjustment or preparation" should be allowed before relinquishment of federal railway control. "It seems obvious that no plan of private owner ship should be considered unless under a broadened, extended or ampli fled government regulations."

Roy Ray has been heard from a a lefinite way that leaves no doubts about his physical condition. A let ter received today by his parent dated at Changes, France, states that ie had been through the big battle of the Argonne where he suffered a nervous breakdown but is now in a rest camp and rapidly regaining his former self control. It is inferred from his story that he was lost from his comrades for he speaks of wandering around for days without food and being able to get a slice of bread which was so filled with diri and sand that he could not retain it on his stomach. In his movements he writes that he offered four dollars for a slice of bread without securing a mouthful. The first night of the battle of Argonne he slept in
